Interview Log

7/22/75

5:42 PM Interview commenced in Room 429 Holiday Inn, South, Route 183, Irving, Texas

5:44 PM Furnished FD-395 (Advice of Rights) read and signed same. Interview commenced by Bennett. Pearce states he can not say he ever saw the note (At time of assassination he was a complaint clerk sitting in the reception room.) He heard there was such a note and believes this was info furnished by Fenner. But Pearce can recall on an unknown date Fenner asked if Pearce knew who that was. Pearce states this must have been much later (than the assassination). If there was a note P. does not think he saw a note.

On 11/22/75 Pearce was on A/L as son had operation on knee that had scheduled leave Thanksgiving week. After hearing Kennedy shot Pearce called Office from hospital. Pearce soon after left hospital & returned to office. Can not recall his activities on 11/22 and stayed until about 11:00 PM. Also worked Sat. & Sunday. No knowledge of an

to whether Fenner was in Office.
At best Pearce can recall after Ruby shot Oswald Pearce was assigned to special detail on Ruby. At some time Fenner told Pearce Oswald had been to the Office & left a note or letter for Hosty.
He believes this was some weeks or months after the assassination.
Pearce does not recall the mentions contents of note, it was Pearce's understanding that Oswald was a source of Hosty and in fact that Oswald came to Office would not be unusual as sources & informants do sometimes come to the Office.
After ag going to agent's class and then returning to Dallas on assignment May 1974 Fenner at some time since then made a further reference to Oswald & a communication. This was said by Fenner before several individuals and not addressed solely to Pearce. On this occasion Fenner made some comment that the Oswald note made some reference to a bombing. Pearce said he didn't believe her.

5:24 PM Oral interview completed.

5:27 PM Moved to Room 435 for preparation of affidavit

7:02 PM Completed dictating affidavit to Ellis & started typing.
